Mrs. William Lea,

Wilmington, Del.

Dear Madam:

I have your letter of the 20th instant. Your decoration is the star of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre, it is worn without a ribbon, the badge, which is simply the red cross similar to the centre of the star, in some cases surmounted by a crown, is attached to a black ribbon.

As you say you have an offer of one hundred dollars for it, I will not make any offer, as I would not offer any where near that amount.

Very truly yours

Director.

these orders are only of value
to a collector.

Enclosed please find money for
Specials ordered and stamps.

Dear Madam:

Your letter has just been received. We do not care to purchase the "Star" of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre, for forty dollars, at the present time, the badges of this Order are not very hard to obtain, we have two of the badges, and I am of the opinion that, sooner or later, I will be able to pick up one of the stars at a lower figure.

Thanking you for giving me the opportunity, and regretting that I can not avail myself of it, I am,

Very truly yours,

Director.
